

QUANG N. CHE

4846 CEDAR AVENUE, EL MONTE, CA 91732
(626)-674-1136 | QUANG.N.CHE@GMAIL.COM

EDUCATION

---

University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA)

(June 2014)

B.A. Psychology

- Relevant Coursework: Abnormal Psychology, Health Psychology, Cognitive Psychology, Developmental Psychology (Life-Span), Social Psychology, Social Cognitive Neuroscience, Organizational Behavior, Research Methods, Statistics and Data Analysis and Medical Terminology

WORK EXPERIENCE

---

Howard Chudler & Associates, Inc.

(Oct. 2015 – Present)

Behavior Specialist

- Assess antecedents and consequences of behaviors to determine function of targeted problem behaviors
- Create intervention programs tailored specifically to each client to ameliorate targeted problem behaviors
- Replace problem behaviors (i.e. defiance, tantrums, aggression, etc.) with more socially acceptable behaviors
- Implement operant conditioning to eradicate problem behaviors and reinforce replacement behaviors
- Collaborate with parent(s)/caretaker(s) to incorporate intervention program into the client's everyday life

Quantum Behavioral Solutions, Inc.

(Jan. 2015 – Oct. 2015)

Behavioral Therapist

- Administered 1:1, ABA-based individualized treatment plans to young clients with developmental disabilities
- Successfully helped clients reduce PB's such as aggression, tantrums and master approximately 50 goals
- Incorporate occupational therapy techniques to help clients master task analysis goals (i.e. fork and cup usage)
- Provide parent education for English- and Vietnamese-speaking families on behavioral intervention techniques
- Identify antecedents/consequences of problem behaviors to provide data for functional behavior assessments

Citrus Valley Health Partners

(Jan. 2015 – June 2015)

Occupational Therapy Intern

- Educated over 10 pulmonary patients on symptoms their symptoms and OT treatments such as PLB and HEP
- Created a pulmonary rehab handout currently used by OT department for recovering pulmonary patients
- Evaluated about 50 patient's on range of motion and strength by assessing proximal stability and distal mobility
- Provided total care for over 80 patients with low functional independence to accomplish activities of daily living
- Motivated patients to improve emotional capacity by discussing their conditions and encouraging their efforts

Dynamic Therapies, Inc.

(Dec. 2014 – Feb. 2015)

Occupational Therapy Intern

- Prepared treatment areas to ensure a sterile, safe and fully-equipped environment for incoming patients
- Created a custom child-sized sock aid that assisted a young patient with cerebral palsy in dressing himself
- Assisted occupational therapists with supporting and pacifying children 0-7 years old during treatments
- Aided occupational therapists with sessions on feeding, fine motor skills, body mechanics and proprioception
- Organized 100+ files and charts to maintain records of all patient history, current treatments, and progress

UCLA Anderson School of Management

(June 2013 – June 2014)

Research Assistant for Behavioral Laboratory

- Administered over 20 different studies on consumer decision-making and organizational behavior
- Surveyed approximately 2000 participants in-person and online via Qualtrics surveying software
- Prepared data of over 30 projects for further conclusive analyses using IBMSPSS

SKILLS

---

Relevant: RBT, BLS for Healthcare Providers (CPR and AED)

Computer: PC and Mac experience; efficient with Web research; capable of typing 80 WPM; proficient with Windows Office Suite (Word, PowerPoint, Excel, and Outlook), IBMSPSS, Qualtrics, Google Docs and Google Forms

Language: Fluent in English and Vietnamese